PRAISE & ENDORSEMENTS

"What I admire most about Rich is that he is real and authentic. It totally comes through – he practices what he preaches. He talks about being a 'whole person' and I firmly believe this is the answer. Thank you Rich!"

– Cid - Santa Monica, CA

"Rich is so real, his passion is wonderful and he always says what I need to hear."

– Diana - Detroit, MI

"I enjoy Rich more than most talks I've heard mainly because of his lovely energy. The lift of his joyful voice dropped me into a deeply receptive, relaxed and happy place. I related to his authentic, personal sharing."

– Jennifer - St. Petersburg, FL

"Rich's message is totally inspiring and totally timely. Recently I've been experiencing an inordinate amount of fear and just this morning realized that I had to go into it completely rather than keep trying to dispel it through affirmations and positive attitudes. What a gift to have his words confirm this instinct. From my own feelings and Rich's comments I feel so validated, I'm supremely grateful and feel so encouraged."

– Karen - Scottsdale, AZ

"Rich is fun to listen to and yet has so much depth. What a different world it would be if all of us worked to be of service to others instead of being mostly concerned with 'what is in it for me'. Thankfully, as consciousness is expanding many more people are operating from this point of view. I also liked his comments on detachment and feeling worthy."

– Elizabeth - New York, NY

"WOW!!! Rich was so down-to-earth. Thank you for sharing such a positive message about living a passionate life. Thank you! Thank you!"

– Kathleen - Modesto, CA

"Amazing. Literally amazing learning experience. I am so grateful for Rich. At the beginning I was somewhat suspicious but now realize more and more that everything is summing up in such a beautiful way. Thank you that you exist and that you are offering people the opportunity to be happy ... truly happy."

– Anna - Reno, NV

"I love it when you hear someone who is walking the talk, and that just radiates through their words. Also when that is combined with humility and a willingness to share their recent personal examples. Yay Rich!"

– Denise - Murray, UT

"I resonate with Rich's awareness of the importance for emotional maturity. I smiled about his realization at 39 yrs of age he sees developing emotional maturity as a key tool to the path of wholeness. As a youthful, vibrant 65 yr old I am now starting to 'get it', that giving and receiving love without fear is truly being in the moment. Hearing your personal stories helps me in turning on my shining light to bring my fears out of the darkness and into love of myself. Thank you!"

– Sharon - Yorktown, VA
